Reader's Opinions

I enjoy cozies but am not sure this exactly qualifies as one. I also like learning about new places and things, in this case wine making, but these lessons were boring. The dialogue was stilted, the writing didn't flow, the story, not so much far fetched, as just unbelievably weird situations. I didn't like the characters or how they...

Could have been an interesting book. The plot had potential, but the writing was not good. I only finished it because when I really started hating it I was mercifully close to the end. The author switches from first person to narrative, depending on which character is telling certain parts of the story. Also, the writer spends way too...
