

DAYS AND NIGHTS

The setting of Days and Nights is the massive and terrible struggle for Stalingrad, where Russia turned the Nazi tide. The story is a simple one. It is the tale of seventy days and nights in which a young Red Army officer seized and held three apartment houses in Stalingrad. It defines, as well, the subtle ways in which patriotism and a desire for happiness have taken first importance in the minds and hearts of many Russian men and women. It has been called by critics the...

Reader's Opinions

A novel about the battle of Stalingrad (published in 1945) written by one of the top Soviet war correspondents (a rival of Vasily Grossman). Good, straight-forward war story; key figures are a battalion commander, an old soldier, and a...
