

THE TROUBLE WITH VALENTINE'S

The perfect Valentine's gift? As far as women's fashion accessories went, he was spectacular. A black-haired, cobalt-eyed, dangerous-looking toy who no doubt warned you outright not to bother playing with him if you didn't like his rules. He was like a Hermes handbag; women saw and women wanted, even though they knew the price was going to be astronomical. Hallie Bennett likes a challenge, though – and his offer is tempting: $5,000 if she pretends to be his wife for a week. It might not be...

Reader's Opinions

Hallie is asked by a man she's never met before to spend a week with him in Hong Kong on a business trip in exchange for money after he lies about having had a wife to people he is finalising a contract with. First problem for me was right here, that she even considers the...
