

IMPERIAL WINDS

It was a world of blazing jewels and sweeping silk dresses, of lavish parties and innocent flirtations, and lovely Daisy Pelham was caught up in it all. Fleeing from the rejection of her childhood sweetheart, feeling stifled by the overprotectiveness of her family, the desirable young...

Reader's Opinions

This was hard to get into. But, once I had read about 4 chapters, I just wanted to finish it! It was different, but a really great book.

Minister's daughter Daisy Pelham is nursing a broken heart and heads to Russia in hopes of working as a governess teaching the children to speak English (it's all the rage for the upper crusts to have an English governess just for this, there are nurses and other governesses for all the other day-to-day stuff of raising...
