Peek Inside the Book

Never underestimate the commercial value of mental illness. Moriah Jovan, The Proviso //

Reader's Opinions

It is ironic that one of Ms. Jovan's central characters is constantly informed by his family that "he always does things the hard way." The author does also. She writes well. Her plotting is excellent as is her character development. But she has clearly picked out the hardest row to hoe. Jovan has written a Latter Day Genre book that...

This book is long, but it's so good! Ah the tangled webs we weave!! The story of Knox, Sebastian and Giselle is quite complex. The Proviso has interfered with the lives of these three cousins almost all their lives. Knox has lived his life under the microscope and his actions have had consequences affecting those he holds dear. He has...
