Reader's Opinions

Sinful is a great book for paranormal lovers looking for a fast and entertaining page turner. This book was definitely a "guilty pleasure" for me. While it was fun and exciting the plot is a little bit predictable. We meet Elizabeth whose mother just past away and is forced to start a new life in Texas with her father (who hasn't really...

I was very intrigued by the cover and description of this book and was excited to read it. It didn't quite live up to my expectations, but it was still a fun read. It used a bit of a cliché plot sequence: mortal meets immortal, the two fall in love, someone/something tries to tear them apart, and they manage to fix the problem. There...
