Peek Inside the Book

Youth hasn't got anything to do with chronological age. It's times of hope and happiness. Wallace Stegner, Crossing to Safety //

The clear lesson of New England's history is that when there are not enough suitable men around to run the world, women are perfectly capable of doing so. Wallace Stegner, Crossing to Safety //

Reader's Opinions

This is a wonderful novel. It is the story of two couples set from the years of the depression until the 1970s; it drifts along at a sedate pace with little violence, little action, but a great deal of human warmth. It is an analysis of friendship and marriage from the beginnings at a...

This was definitely one of the better books I have read this year. A slower paced book that I still felt deserved every one of the 5 stars I gave it. This story involved a very intimate and intense look at 4 friends and two marriages over...
