Reader's Opinions

Beautifully written poems accompanied by gorgeous photos. Whether you love poetry or love bears and wolves and ocean life, this is a great book. Lorna Crozier did a beautiful job of translating the coast into words. I felt like I was there and it has renewed my love and yearning for being near the coast. I'm looking forward to reading...

Breathtaking and intriguing photos, even though I have read/viewed Ian McAllister's books from BC's temperate rain forest and west coast. The book is a result of poet Lorna Crozier's trip with McAllister, and then crafting poems triggered by that adventure and the photos he sent her. Lovely book, although it is a polemic, mildly expressed...
