

OF COURSE YOU KNOW THAT CHOCOLATE IS A VEGETABLE AND OTHER STORIES

The president of Mystery Writers of America, Barbara D'Amato is a playwright, novelist, and crime researcher who currently writes two mystery series. One features Chicago patrol officers Suze Figueroa and Norm Bennis, whose adventures on the streets of Chicago supply six of the twelve stories in this collection. And in "See No Evil", the partners encounter freelance investigative reporter Cat Marsala, the heroine of D'Amato's other popular series. Cat also does a Washington expose in "Freedom of the Press". The...
