

WITCH'S FIRE

When firelight reflects in a windowpane, they call it witch's fire. There may be some truth in those words. Kirsty Hamilton has had to except a lot of hardship—life in a wheelchair, her father's new wife, and moving far from anything familiar. As if that's not bad enough, her bratty stepsister, Pam, is convinced that a witch is trying to take possession of their house. Kirsty thinks...

Reader's Opinions

Summary: After losing her mother, sister, and ability to walk in a car crash, thirteen-year-old Kirsty moves to Wisconsin and has to figure out how to deal with her new stepmother, stepsister, and the insane witch who's haunting their...

This has a fair amount of teen angst, a new step family and a newly handicapped girl who is in grief for loss of her mom and mobility. But I liked it.
