

WITHOUT ARMOR

WITHOUT ARMOR was published in America six months after LOST HORIZON, yet before LOST HORIZON began to win popularity--thus it missed the wider appeal it might otherwise have had. Set in Russia, it is the story of Ainsely Fothergill, an Englishman who served as a British spy and was exiled to Siberia for eight years. The book reminds us that James Hilton was one of the...

Reader's Opinions

I cant take any more of this, I'm halfway through so I think that's a long enough test for reader/author compatability. The story itself is good. Its the telling of it that crosses my eyes. That, and the male protagonist. He just doesn't seem to care much about, well, anything. You know, I can take just about any...

An interesting story of the Russian revolution
