

WITCHES OF LONDON - LARS

Some problems you can't solve with magick—and some you can. After a homophobic pagan group rejected him, Lars Kendall is a solitary heathen on the Northern Path, loyal to the gods of the Norse pantheon. But being on his own sucks. So when he finally meets a mixed group of other queer witches and magick-users, it's like...

Peek Inside the Book

Rhys chuckled. I dont really know much about it, though a religion that has a rainbow bridge sounds like more fun than the others. Lars grinned and winked. There you go. * Aleksandr Voinov, Witches of London - Lars //

Reader's Opinions

Gorgeous cover. A different cover and I probably don't read this book. Past that I'm not to sure what to say. There are two separate story threads here: Lars and his spiritual journey into deeper levels of his pagan...
