

PUSHING THE LIMITS

When a case of mistaken identity puts Cade Tucker in the wrong place at the right time, he can't believe his luck. Drawn to the beautiful Julia McCormack, he flirts his way into her bed and they welcome the New Year together. Though they agreed their time together was no-strings-attached, first-name only, Julia's having a hard time letting go of the best sex she ever had. She dives into work at her corporate law firm, hoping to get her mind off the man who rocked her...

Reader's Opinions

Fast read, interesting plot. I liked how both got caught up with the chemistry. It's a bit surprising that they didn't only spend a night, but for days. I also loved the fact that no matter what happened before, they managed to work professionally and teamed up very well. And well, I always loved this kind of theme.

ARC received from netgalleyRead a lot novella, but this is the BEST one ever. This story starts with a mistaken identity where the hero, Cade, has to dress up as a Santa for Julia's party at her law firm. The night ends with flirtatious banter and them heating up the sheets. Julia is a shark lawyer, very spunky and independent but she...
