

DEATH BY GUMBO

Things aren't going well for Jake Russo. He's been transferred from Sarasota to New Orleans, and he's had to leave his reporting beat and girlfriend behind. Now he's a lonely food critic--not the best job for a man who's on a diet. But things get worse when a mysterious death occurs at the trendiest new restaurant in the city. Jake has to explore the world of traditional New Orleans cuisine, brave the new frontier of...

Reader's Opinions

Jack Russo's style takes a big of getting used to, as well as his unique set of characters, but they grew on me. I've read three of his books and actually bought two. I would read more by him.

read on my kindle. a pretty fast read and a pretty good book
