Peek Inside the Book

By the end of the second day a very fine head was revealed. Yes, a very fine head indeed, sharp beard, drooped mustache, heavy-lidded eyes outlined black. And no cinnabar on...

And, at such a time, for a few of us there will always be a tugging at the heart knowing a precious moment had gone and we not there. We can ask and ask but we cant have again what once seemed ours for ever the way things...

Reader's Opinions

Coming to this book by way of Jacob (again!) is yet another Easter Egg in the sea of literature. Excellent writing, superb characterizations and amazing dialogue - I fully understand why this novel was nominated for the Booker Prize in 1980. Carr is the representative author of Vonnegut's quote: "Literature should not disappear up its..."
