Reader's Opinions

BR, July 6th with Momo, Julie, Paul and Nathan. As much as I adored this book there were a few things that bugged and annoyed me and quite frankly kept me from giving this book 5 freaking stars. I really liked Jake. Jake was funny. He was caring and he was a hard-working man. I admired him so much for taking responsibility for his siblings...

This was good. A nice, easy read that had me smiling most of the way through it. It's not quite as charming as Loving Jay but then again, not much is. The ending gave me a bit of a pause though. Seemed kind of out there and for a bit I felt some anger at his mother's assumptions but I was able to get over that because they did the one...
