

THE DEVIL AND PHILOSOPHY: THE NATURE OF HIS GAME

In The Devil and Philosophy, 34 philosophers explore questions about one of the most recognizable and influential characters (villains?) of all time. From Roman Polanski's The Ninth Gate to J. R. R. Tolkien's The Silmarillion to Bram Stoker's Dracula to Darth Vader to Al Pacino's iconic performance in The Devil's Advocate, this book demonstrates that a little devil goes a long way. From humorous appearances, as in Kevin Smith's film Dogma and Chuck Palahniuk's novels Damned...

Reader's Opinions

We certainly have a love/hate relationship with The Devil. Mostly, we love to hate him. Although, we also love to reference him in: movies, TV, books, Halloween costumes, music, idioms, cartoons, legends, even basing characters on him now, lets put a smile on that face! Had a Devil of a Time finding some of these: 1. Speak of the devil - if...
