Peek Inside the Book

The problem is that if we trust in man we are always let down. No, we shouldn't trust in man-- not ultimately. If we don't trust in man or God, we are in an awful lonely mess, too. You see, if we don't trust anyone, we live in fear, but if we trust in God, then we...

Yes, I suppose God is the only one we can really trust. He's all-good and all-powerful. Some people want to do right, and they try to, but none of us are all-powerful. No matter what we want, we can't always make it happen. Stefani Carmichael, Wildflower Ranch //

Reader's Opinions

This is a well-written story for both children and adults. The intriguing story makes a quick read. I am eager to read more of Stefani's work

Wildflower Ranch is an excellent book about a sister and her autistic brother trying to stay together after their mother deserts them. The story takes place in Corsicana, TX. This is Stefani Carmichael's first book and I hope it is the first of many! I...
