

A CUP OF MURDER

It's been a rough week for Laila Rook, the barista at Roasted Love, a community favorite indie coffeehouse that serves coffee in ceramic cups and features art from local artists on the walls. A new upscale chain coffeehouse, Sunrise, opened across the street, and Laila's customers are leaving. The owner of Sunrise, Michael Simms wants...

Reader's Opinions

I enjoyed this cozy little coffee mystery. Set in a coffee shop...why that is just about the best setting ever! Throw in a dog, a mean shop owner, a politician and a single female...well you have got yourself a fun read. Not memorable, but fun.

Not even a full pot...Of coffee could keep me awake for this one. I recommend a good editor and a red pencil. Words improperly used and elementary sentence structure is the tip of the iceberg.
