

LOVING AN ABSENTMINDED ASTROPHYSICIST

At twenty-three, Dr. Liam McGregor is a well-respected astrophysicist, astrobiologist, and geologist. With no family, few friends, and no romantic prospects, he's used to being alone. Focusing on his various scientific projects and taking care of his decidedly unusual cat help keep the loneliness at bay. Jareth Manning is starting life over—new town, new job—after the loss of his husband....

Reader's Opinions

3 star review by Lilyl really enjoyed the start of this story because it was different and involved a socially awkward wounded hero. Liam was the ultimate wounded hero character. Jareth felt like a modern day knight in shining armor; patient, courteous, passionate, handsome and a total alpha. But...

To be honest, this is the first book by Ms. Tarrant that I have read, and I can say that I was pleasantly surprised at how sweet and romantic it was. This book is actually 2 separate books put into one volume, and they cover the beginning and the middle part of the relationship between Jareth and Liam. Usually, I don't personally enjoy...
