Reader's Opinions

2.5 stars Since I have a love of any stories that involve cowboys, I jumped at this one when it came out. I was not instantly taken by these two. I can't really put my finger on the reason why, they just didn't click with me at first. As the story progressed it got better, but they still didn't completely feel like...

Reviewed by Brandilyn for Prism Book Alliance. From the first words, Jon Keys paints an adrenaline-fueled picture of the life of a bull rider. Unfortunately, I found the opening action scene to be the only compelling part of this story.
