

LETTERS FROM CUPID

Breaking up with his boyfriend has left English Professor Derek Chandler feeling lonely and down. He begins to think that he just doesn't have the passion to sustain a long-term relationship -- at least until a letter from a mysterious "Cupid" tells him not to lose hope. Intrigued, Derek replies to his anonymous admirer, and they begin a correspondence where Derek discovers he isn't the only one with doubts about his desirability. Dr. Macon Pinney has admired his colleague from afar for quite a while, but he only intended...

Reader's Opinions

Two forty-ish professors. Slow burn. Subtle wooing. Poems. Chocolate. Desk sex heavy make-out. A cute and sweet Valentine story of not-exactly-friend-but-next-door-office colleagues. Angst-free and very low level - quickly resolved - misunderstanding. Both characters were mature...

That was cute :)
