Reader's Opinions

This title was originally reviewed for Prism Book Alliance As with most titles from eXtasy, I would classify these stories as shifter crack. They are short and not terribly deep. However, they are entertaining for an afternoon (which is how long it will probably take to read all five stories). As long as you can get past the typos and...

This is a quick little story about Manuel the Southwest Watcher an ocelot. He likes the isolation/desolation of the desert and doesn't really see having a mate as a good thing. He's been a bit bored lately, so he goes to town looking for action. He finds a coyote-shifter ironically using other shifters as mules (there are no mule-shifters...
