Peek Inside the Book

The dictionary is an ossuary of empty words. Augusto Roa Bastos, I, the Supreme //

It is not by believing but by doubting that one can attain to the truth, which is ever changing form and condition. Augusto Roa Bastos, I, the Supreme //

Reader's Opinions

I'm reading this Paraguayan historical novel a second time and enjoying (and understanding) it much more, though it's still incredibly dense and mind-boggling. Helen Lane, the translator, should have won some sort of award for faithfully capturing the spirit of the Perpetual Dictator's rambling, insulting, witty, and pretentious wordplay...
