Peek Inside the Book

People live their lives thinking that they are forgotten, and that is why we do the most outrageous things, so as not to go unnoticed Rawi Hage, Carnival //

Reader's Opinions

True open seriousness fears neither parody, nor irony, nor any other form of reduced laughter, for it is aware of being part of an uncompleted whole. Mikhail Bakhtin, Rabelais and His World So, I'll come back to this review when I have studied it in detail for my bachelor paper. Of course, most of you will limit yourself to a single...
