Reader's Opinions

3.5 actually. I started reading this and quickly realized I'd read it before. When, I don't know, and it was either a library book or from a book swap my husband's grandmother used to participate in. I'd guess at the time I was still at...

Wonderful story. Cheryl St John has always had me for a fan from the first book I read. She is a wonderful storyteller. If a person is looking for a true feel good book with grit and substance, then just read one of her books.
