Reader's Opinions

I read this as an ARC and because it was a football story I was excited to give it a try. I was sorry to read the mistakes made in regards to the football parts. There should have been more research done in writing about football. Not a bad story just wasn't happy about the football...

I received a free copy of this book in exchange for an honest review. Full of action and drama, this is a good story. The characters are, for the most part, very likable and interesting. The overuse of the words boyfriend and girlfriend tends to take away a little of the maturity of the author, but doesn't dull the book.
