Reader's Opinions

While I have to agree with previous reviewers, that the writing style is a bit juvenile, I did find the stories to be very interesting, and would recommend this to anyone who loves reading about women in history who broke the mold. These sassy women are worth remembering, and I'm glad the author took the time to research and compile...

Gossipy anecdotal history turns out to be not my cup of tea at all, but then I find People magazine boring. YMMV
