

SONNETS FROM NEW ENGLAND: LOVE SONGS

The origin of the sonnet means "little song." These sonnets are about deep abiding love grounded within the quietly charming landscape of the villages, mountains, coastline and lakes of New England. What power connects us more as human beings than love? The love songs of "Sonnets from New England" were...

IRELANDSpenserian Sonnetabab, bcbc, cdcd, eeWhat is it about the Kelly velvet hillsides and the hoary avocado sea,The vertical cliffs where the Gulf Stream commences its southern bend,Slashing like a sculptor gone mad or a rancorous God whos angry, Heaving galaxies of lichen shrouded stones for potato farmers to tend,Where the Famine and the...

After vindictive winter, apple blossoms seem all the more heaven-sent.Among flashing forsythia and budding rose, dogwood and daffodil,The allure of magnolia, azalea and wisteria to lovers dreams are lent.Resolve is recompense as seedtimes blush dispenses with the chill,How sweet-scented is New England now...

Reader's Opinions

"Beneath this feast of vivid impressions and fine details, 'Sonnets from New England' tacitly acknowledges the enigma and evanescence of life. One hears in these sonnets the sensibility of a contemporary avatar of Wallace Stevens. These love songs are not about longing but satisfaction, a significant thematic departure from the early...
