Peek Inside the Book

The good man believed that shortsighted people were also deaf and that their spectacles would become clearer if their ears heard more sharply. Joseph Roth, The Radetzky March //

E il mondo non era pi il vecchio mondo. Tramontava. Ed era nell'ordine delle cose che un'ora prima del suo tramonto le valli avessero ragione dei monti, i giovani dei vecchi, gli stolti dei savi. Joseph Roth, The Radetzky March //

Reader's Opinions

Es mi primer Joseph Roth y me alegro de haber comenzado por La marcha Radetzky (1932), uno de los hitos de la narrativa en lengua alemana. Joseph Roth era tan autocrtico que,...

After reading consecutively Nabokov's Ada and then Beckett's Molloy and Malone Dies, it was very nice to fall back into a book where the prose is so restrained, so gently laid down, so musical, so functional while still, in each paragraph, maintaining lovely poetic arcs. This was a...
