Reader's Opinions

I was totally immersed in this North Yorkshire farming world - the family dynamics, the joy and heartbreak, and the authentic dialogue and characters. Look forward to her next book!

I found this novel really readable and rather moving. At the heart of it is a love story and you really feel for the characters - They are involving, and though they have flaws, they are warm and sympathetic and you end up rooting for them. It's also very funny in places. Would definitely recommend.
