Peek Inside the Book

The box of Amish life and culture might provide some protection, but it could never bring salvation. Ira Wagler, Growing Up Amish //

A mental choice, absent a real heart change, is no choice at all. We couldnt force ourselves to be something we were not. That just couldnt happen. And it didnt. Ira Wagler, Growing Up Amish //

Reader's Opinions

In this heartwarming memoir readers join Ira Wagler, a young Amish boy on a journey of self-discovery that begins with his Amish Rumspringa and ends ten years later with a life-changing decision. The account begins with Ira scribbling a note to tuck under his pillow before he packs all his worldly belongings into a small black duffel...
