Peek Inside the Book

They spoke as though these Princes are so remote from life as we know it that the smallest sign of humanity, the mere fact even that they communicated by means of speech was...

Reader's Opinions

Absolutely loved The Pursuit of Love and was devastated at the abrupt ending. A perfectly fitting ending but somehow still unexpected.

These books are both interesting and revolting at the same time. A writer with a flair for humour, Nancy Mitford herself is a genuine uber-blue blooded aristocratic with all the frills including a massive country house, hunting on horseback etc. A terrible snob, but still warm hearted. Since this is marginally autobiographical, I'd...
