Reader's Opinions

An engaging and challenging read with a very distinct style that lived up to the quote from The Times emblazoned on the cover, 'A sumptuous feast of fairytale, magic, dark gothic horror and romance'. This is the tale of Jack Churchill, 'Church', who finds himself transported mysteriously back to 100BC and a Celtic Tribe, far from the...

Not realizing that this was a prequel-y series to a previous series (the Age of Misrule) written by the same author, I was at first a little confused about who the characters were, but...
