Peek Inside the Book

As time goes on and the horrors pile up, the mind seems to secrete a sort of self-protecting ignorance which needs a harder and harder shock to pierce it, just as the body will become immunised to a drug and require bigger and bigger doses. George Orwell, As I Please: 1943-1945 //

* *Do remember that dishonesty and cowardice always have to be paid for.* Dont imagine that for years on end you can make yourself the boot-licking propagandist of the Soviet rgime, or any other rgime, and then suddenly return to mental decency. Once a whore, always a whore. George Orwell, As I Please: 1943-1945 //

Reader's Opinions

One of the entertaining things about offering reviews of Orwells essays is that I find myself increasingly applying his own method of critique to what he himself says. This is actually a compliment, since it suggests that my own style of reviewing has become influenced by Orwells style of reviewing books. This style is one of looking...
