Peek Inside the Book

That bowl of soup it was dearer than freedom, dearer than life itself, past, present, and future. Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn, One Day In The Life Of Ivan Denisovich //

Reader's Opinions

My copy of the 1963 novel that won Alexander Solzhenitsyn the Nobel Prize is thirty-six years old, and it looks it--not just because it is dog-eared and the pages tinged yellow, but because the jacket copy is thick with Cold War fever. This copy, for example, is "THE COMPLETE, UNEXPURGATED TRANSLATION BY RONALD HINGLEY AND MAX HAYWARD."...

Bitterly cold wind whips all around me! One of the most chilling book I have ever read."The belly is a demon. It doesn't remember how well you treated it yesterday; it'll cry out for more tomorrow."-Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn
