Reader's Opinions

I have never read this author yet Avon allowed me to do so. Much to my surprise it wasn't a full book about christmas, which in fact i was really happy about, as I don't really read christmas books. When I first started I did cringe a bit with names such as Noel, Tinsall and the town being called Hope Christmas. Having a title about...

Dreadful - didn't realise books as badly written as this are being published. Checked the title page in case it was self-published but no, a "professional" (not) publisher put this...
