

ENDGAME, 1945: THE MISSING FINAL CHAPTER OF WORLD WAR II

To end a history of World War II at VE Day is to leave the tale half told. While the war may have seemed all but over by Hitler's final birthday...

Reader's Opinions

I didn't get to finish this book because it was due at the library. I'll have to take it back out at another time. It was interesting stuff about the end of the war in Europe and particularly because parts of the book focused on a man in the 10th Mountain Division.

This book should be mandatory reading in ALL courses of study at the college level, if for no other reason than to put things into their proper perspective. For anyone who thinks "War's over, let's go home, lads" is where the story ends, you NEED to read this.
