Reader's Opinions

Enjoyed this story! I am not usually one for "cowboy" type stories but I have enjoyed Ginger Voight's books, so I read it. I liked the story. It was more like the typical romance stories with a marriage of convenience. A nice, light read. Another great story from a great author!

Jessica Austin was the last of her line; her parents had tragically died eight years prior and she ran the century-plus old family ranch without a husband or even the slightest desire for one. She had learned long ago that wandering cowboys would only bring heartbreak and she was too strong a woman to allow a man to love her and leave...
