Peek Inside the Book

Love and hate are so confused in your savage minds and the vibrations of the one are so very like those of the other that I can't always distinguish. You see, we neither love nor hate...

Reader's Opinions

I thought I would like this but it's too dated and dull. The jokes about the alien view of our world is not funny enough to last the whole play, which it does. I kept hoping for something to hit, but it's just a play that hasn't aged well at all.
