Reader's Opinions

"It's so hard to love you Texas," states a poem by Noemi Martinez, "with your death and denial/when you choke the stars/before they reach their destination." But not all is darkness and despair. Martinez mixes poems that detail love, loss, secret joy, secret pain. dust, flowers, and sunsets with beautiful photographs of the landscape...

This is the best book of poetry I've read in years. My daughter and I read and reread it together and were awestruck by the way Martinez brings horrific truths and beautiful images and words together in her work.
