Reader's Opinions

This is really, really solid. And then you look at how young McCloud was and go, "Omigosh." This seems to be the work of a really mature artist. The whole book never becomes transcendent but there's also not a single panel that seems like it's wasted. Not only does the quality never let up, but there are a couple of geewhiz moments....

Good fun superheroics. It's not groundbreaking, but it does what it does extremely well.
