

HEADSTRONG

In the wake of increasing concern over brain trauma in professional athletes, Patrick Link has crafted a story about a retired NFL linebacker who must deal with a family tragedy and his own suffering because of the violence of his chosen sport. Includes a conversation about brain injuries and sports with Dr. Robert Cantu, the Senior Advisor to the NFL Head, Neck, and Spine Committee. An L.A. Theatre Works full-cast performance featuring Deidrie Henry, Ernie Hudson, Ntare Guma Mbaho Mwine and Scott Wolf. Directed by...

Reader's Opinions

Powerful dialogue about football and traumatic brain injury. This play touches all the sore spots and represents the different perspectives fairly and completely in a short production. I feel the author lets you draw your own conclusions. Also, an interview with a researcher at the end made me want to work on strengthening my neck muscles.....
