

AMERICAN BEAUTY

Kirsty Engle is in shock when Bradley Miller, resplendent in a ball gown, feather boa, and tons of eye-shadow, wants to rent her spare room. She can't understand why this obviously unavailable man makes her heart sing and her blood boil more than any other. Undercover police Lt. Brad Mueller curses his captain and...

Reader's Opinions

The premise of an undercover cop pretending to be a gay man intrigued me, but the story fell a bit flat for me in places. Some characterizations seemed a bit over the top, and the romance didn't always click for me.

Looks funny.
