Reader's Opinions

This story was rather similar in initial twist to Cindy Dees The Longest Night, taking quite a lot of enjoyment away. Still, the premise of a serial killer targeting women in their own home possibly living next door to the heroine, resulting in the FBI putting an agent in her home as pretend new husband had a lot of potential and it...

You just find out the FBI suspects your neighbor to be a serial killer. Do you really allow the FBI agent, however hunky, to move in and pretend to be your husband when you have a toddler daughter to worry about? And all within the first 10 pages?
