

SWITCH

"The security that we are given motivates us just as much as a need to serve. More, in fact, for some. If anything goes wrong in the relationship, we discuss it. We know that we have something to valuable to lose. But we also live in doubt; and then more than us. It can be easier to dominate, than to safely submit. They know that we need to find someone, in desperation, anyone, who can provide us...

Peek Inside the Book

Who am I to deny my Master pleasure, simply because it is not at the hands of myself? He is free to do as he will, because of the life that he has given me. I am thankful for him, for the fact that out of all of us, I am...

And when he ran the blades over her she felt light as a feather, floating happily into that place where pain and pleasure walked hand in hand, fully clear and conscious and she looked out to the darkness that lay outside of their artificial day. All too soon it was gone, her...

Reader's Opinions

Jenna is a young girl whos just trying to find herself in this world, her live was quite meaningless before she met Henry an older man that somehow managed to captivate her from the first moment that she laid her eyes on him.
