

TABLE FOR TWO

Being a legal secretary is not exactly Jana Barrowman's dream job, so when recently widowed Alex Steadman contacts her about the résumé she sent in more than a year ago with a job offer for a creative consultant position, she puts some serious thought into accepting it. The problem is, if she takes the new job, she will have to move to another state and leave her mom and dad behind. But when Jana determines...

Reader's Opinions

So cute a read. I love that it ended well, but not everything went the way it was expected. There got to be a point in the book that I wanted to reach into the book and smack the main character and say "stop fighting it so hard" but otherwise it was a great read!
