

EDEN HALL

After 24 years, she's learning the truth that was hidden from her as a child. Now the fate of many people depends on what she will do with it. At the age of four, Araminta 'Minty' Cardale was exiled from Eden Hall on the wings of a scandal. Twenty years later, summoned by her half-sister, she has returned to see her dying father. But her hopes of a warm family welcome are shattered, and she is rejected once again. Making a place...

Reader's Opinions

It says something about the book (or most likely the reader) when it takes a chapter into a book before you recognize you have read this book before. It must not have made much of an impression the first time. I still finished reading it even after I recognized the story. It held my attention but I still didn't fall in love with it....

Fantastic rags to riches story with grit and faith.
