Reader's Opinions

I really enjoyed this book. Freyja and Joshua were perfect together. I loved the way Joshua handled her and could put her in her place.

This is a general review of the Bedwyn Saga series, though it applies perfectly to these two books. The pace is steady, not quite brisk but certainly not dragging. The characters are strong and well-developed, becoming real and imperfect human beings growing as they go. The plot at first appears to be simple, kinda like that first spoonful...
