

OMENS

OMENS is the latest publication by horror author Richard Gavin. OMENS is a haunting collection of short stories for the discriminating horror fiction enthusiast. The tales are reminiscent of the work of Robert Aickman, relying more so on atmosphere & imagery to convey the sense of the unknown and unexplained, and also of the works of Thomas Ligotti, conveying an unsettling sense of the unimaginable.

Reader's Opinions

Unlike many of his peers, Richard Gavin has managed to tell a group of stories here that espouse a single Weltanschauung, yet remain varied enough to maintain the reader's interest. His prose is a baroque style reminiscent of Ligotti by way of Poe and Kafka, which lends it an air of something slightly foreign his characters feel more at...
